[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., June 10.—An interesting social feature of the week was the historical meeting of the Bristol Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in the library-room on Friday night. A number of the members of the S. V. Fulkerson Camp of ex-Confederate Veterans were present and enjoyed the program, which consisted of papers on several important events of the Civil War and matters growing out of the memorable struggle.

A party left Bristol this week for a tour of the far West, and will visit points of interest in the Rocky Mountains and beyond. Among those in the party were James A. Mears, business manager of Sullins College, and his brother, A. G. Mears of New York; Mrs. E. Vesta Kirkpatrick and daughter, and Misses Bess and Mary Cannon. Mrs. John M. Preston, of Seven-Mile Ford, was the hostess at a tea given at her hospitable home one day this week. The Preston home and lawn were elegantly furnished on the occasion. Among the Bristol people who enjoyed the occasion were Mrs. W. K. Vance, Mrs. J. E. Graves, Mrs. Frank Lowry, Mrs. H. E. Graves, Mrs. H. F. Lewis, Mrs. Otey, Mrs. T. J. Newton, Mrs. J. H. McCue, Mrs. W. C. Stuart and Mrs. Robert Gray.
